

HARDING's SHAKESPEARE,

With One Hundred and Eighty elegant Engravings, from Original Designs by Stothard and Gardner.

THERE are few works, in any country, which have been printed in a style of superior Elegance, or offered to the world under a greater variety of forms, than the DRAMATIC PRODUCTIONS of

SHAKESPEARE:

yet, from the inexhaustible fund of Historical, Picturesque, and Interesting Subjects for the Pencil, which his Works afford, the PROPRIETORS are induced to announce in SMALL OCTAVO, elegantly and correctly printed, each Play to be embellished with FIVE ENGRAVINGS, so that the whole Set of THIRTY-SEVEN Plays will contain ONE HUNDRED AND EIGHTY PLATES.

The PROPRIETORS trust THIS EDITION will meet with the Public approbation, considering that the Plates alone, from the taste of the Designs, and the elegance of Execution, would be cheap at the price charged for Letter-Press and Engravings.

London: Printed for E. HARDING, 98, Pall-Mall; J. WRIGHT, Piccadilly; G. SAEL, 192, Strand; J. NUNN, Great Queen Street; and VERNOR and HOOD, 31, Poultrey.

CONDITIONS.

- I. The Work shall be neatly printed on a superfine wove Paper, and hotpressed.
 - II. That each Number or Play shall contain Five elegant Engravings, from Original Designs by Stothard and Gardner.
 - III. That the Work shall be completed in 37 Numbers, Price 2s. each, making 12 volumes. No. 37 to contain Titles, Prefaces, Glossary, and a Life of the Author, with an elegant Head taken from an Original Picture in the possession of the Duke of Chandos.
 - IV. That No. 1 and 2 will be published on the First of April, and a Number continued on the First Day of each succeeding Month till the whole is completed.
- * * * A few copies will be printed on a large Vellum Paper, with First Impressions of the Plates, price 4s. per Number.

The Proprietors apologize to the Public for not having published their First Number on the First of March. They have now so arranged their Plan as to prevent any future disappointment; and announce the publication of
